8. The Stated Clerk had received an Overture from the First Church High Point regarding the Historical Foundation of the Presbyterian Church. This was referred to the Bills and Overtures Committee and approved as amended.

OVERTURE TO 199TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Whereas the Historical Foundation of the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches has served American Presbyterianism as one of its official archives since 1927, and

Whereas the Historical Foundation has been blessed with a significant endowment and has successfully raised two million dollars for building, renovation and endowment since 1980, and

Whereas the Historical Foundation collection is housed in the largest, most modern archival and library building owned by the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) and is therefore equipped to serve the archival needs of the denomination for many years to come, and

Whereas the Historical Foundation is the most widely visited and used historical facility in the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), and

Whereas the Historical Foundation staff is composed of professional dedicated to preserving, organizing, and making available the information contained in this collection, and

Whereas records of particular congregations are an integral part of the Historical Foundation through the Robert Lee Stowe, Jr. Local Church History and Records Program, the only program of its kind in any denomination, and that it would violate the integrity of the program and the goal of accessibility of records if congregations were required to deposit these records in another location, and

Whereas, Book of Order G-9.0406 makes provision for the fact that a large body of records do and will continue to exist in various seminary repositories as well as at the Presbyterian Historical Society (Philadelphia) and Historical Foundation (Montreat), as official repositories of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), and

Whereas the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) will be better served by full utilization of its offical repositories as collecting agencies in the national church, Therefore Be It Resolved, that the 199th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) reaffirm Book of Order (G-9.0406) that all governing bodies be allowed to choose to which of the several official denominational repositories they will send records.

9. The Stated Clerk had received the following Overtures from other presbyteries requesting concurrence by Orange Presbytery. These were referred to the Bills and Overtures Committee.

OVERTURE ON PEACEMAKING

WHEREAS, THE 192nd General Assembly (1980) of the United Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) established a four-year emphasis on peacemaking; and

Whereas, the 195th General Assembly (1983) of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) extended this emphasis and called for the 1980s to be a decade of peacemaking throughout the reunited church; and

Whereas, the 192nd General Assembly initiated and the 195th General Assembly continued a special Peacemaking Offering; and

Whereas, the unique feature of this Offering, which provides for 25% to be retained by congregations, 25% by middle governing bodies, and 50% to be used by General Assembly, has proved to be an effective means of interpretation of the task of peacemaking throughout the church; and

Whereas, each year has seen an increase in the number of congregations receiving the Peacemaking Offering; and

Whereas, plans are being made to integrate the practices of the former Presbyterian Church, U.S. and the former United Presbyterian Church with regard to special offering; and

Whereas, consideration is being given to merging the Peacemaking Offering with another special offering; and

Whereas, recent experience with the One Great Hour of Sharing and the Economic Crisis Fund has demonstrated that adding a new cause to a special offering does not significantly increase the amount of the offering; and

Whereas, ending the Peacemaking Offering as a separate emphasis would dilute one of the most significant opportunities for interpretation of peacemaking activities in the church;

Therefore, The Synod of the Covenant, meeting at Maysville, Kentucky on November 19-21, 1986, respectfully overtures the 199th General Assembly (1987) to

1) retain the Peacemaking Offering as a separate emphasis; and

2) in any treatment of peacemaking offerings, preserve the genius of the present offering by retaining the provision that 25% remains with congregations, 25% with middle governing bodies and 50% funds General Assembly peacemaking ministries.

OVERTURE ON SEXUAL RESPONSIBILITY

WHEREAS, Human beings are created in the image of God as male and and female; and

WHEREAS, God provided human sexuality for interpersonal fulfillment and procreation within the convenant relationship of marriage and calls us to its responsible use; and

WHEREAS, Irresponsible sexual behavior among all socio-economic and ethnic groups has caused an alarming rise in sexually transmitted disease, unwanted pregnancy, abortion, psychological distress, guilt, and shame; and

WHEREAS, God's grace, foregiveness, and healing power are offered to through Jesus Christ;

THEREFORE, The Presbytery of Cincinnati, meeting on November 11, 1986, overtures the 199th General Assembly (1987) of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) to:

1. Reaffirm its strong belief in the Holy Scriptures and the Reformed tradition as they address sexual behavior;

2. Call our people to affirm sexual intercourse as a gift from God to be used only within the convenant of marriage as the deepest expression of love between a man and woman;

3. Call the church (PCUSA) to fulfill its prophetic role by calling all people to lives of righteousness before God through the transforming power of Jesus Christ; its priestly role by proclaiming grace and mercy and declaring God's forgiveness of repented sins; and its servant role by ministering to those suffering the trauma resulting from the abuses of human sexuality, including adultery and fornication;

4. Call for all of our church family (PCUSA) to live disciplined Christian lives and to model responsible sexual behavior:

    a. by faithfulness within the covenant of marriage which witnesses to God's faithfulness ot his people, as well as Christ's faithfulness to the Church;
    b. by the chastity of all unmarried men and unmarried women;
    c. by encouraging and supporting our young people to celebrate their individual uniqueness and personhood in God's sight, to live disciplined Christian lives, and to be models of chaste behavior among their peers;

5. Encourage the education of our sisters and brothers in Christ concerning the sanctity of sexuality, and its value as a gift from God; and encourage this teaching in the home; and encourage sex education from an ethical basis, in our public institutions.

6. Provide the funds for the appropriate agencies of the PCUSA to supply resources to assist parent and and church leaders in teaching sexual responsibility with a medical, biblical, and theological basis.

Resources are to be submitted to the 200th General Assembly for approval.

OVERTURE TO THE 199TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY (1987) ON THE SUBJECT OF COCU PARTICIPATION FROM THE PRESBYTERY OF GENESSEE VALLEY

WHEREAS, the nine member denominations of COCU, including the Presbyterian representatives, have reached a substantial agreement on ways to be visibly reconciled to each other through two documents: Covenanting Toward Unity which is before the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) for study and response this calendar year; and The COCU Concensus which is now before the member denominations for official action, perhaps as early as 1988 for our denomination, and,

WHEREAS, the ecumenical ministries in this new "Church of Christ Uniting" would be carried out through "councils of oversight" which would be governed and administered by a "threefold pattern of ordained ministry": ministry of bishops; ministry of presbyters; and ministry of deacons (The COCU Concensus, page 47 and following), and, WHEREAS, the decision making and leadership functions of these councils of oversight, as set forth in the "threefold pattern of ordained ministry" (page 47 sect. 39 through page 63 sect. 54), would be placed in the hands of those persons who were designated bishops by the member denominations, all of whom must be ordained ministers, and,

WHEREAS, the proposed structure for the new Church of Christ Uniting, by not allowing the member denominations to select their own representatives according to their own polity to serve in these decision making and leadership roles, but instead requiring that only ordained ministers who are designated bishops may serve in those roles, thereby prohibits the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) from designating ordained elders to participate in the decision making and leadership process in the new "councils of oversight," and,

WHEREAS, the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) believes that one of the most enriching contributions of its tradition to the Church Uniting is its recognition of the right of ordained laity to be represented in the decision making councils of the church.

WHEREAS, since those denominations which have bishops have, with but few exceptions, historically excluded women from the role of bishops, an ecumenical structure that was governed by bishops would, in all probability, be governed by all male clergy.

THEREFORE, the Presbytery of Genesee Valley, meeting at the Summerville Presbyterian Church, Rochester, New York on November 25, 1986, respectfully overtures the 199th General Assembly (1987) of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) to take the following four actions:

1. To remain its commitment to the participation of ordained laity (presently elders within our tradition) in the principle decision making and leadership of the Church.

2. To reaffirm its commitment to the full participation of women and men both as ordained ministers and as ordained laity in leadership roles within the life and work of the Church.

3. To ask the Consulation on Church Union to make appropriate modifications in The COCU Consensus and/or the Convenanting Toward Unity documents to allow the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), its Synods and Presbyteries, to designate ordained elders to served in the decision making functions of the assemblies and councils of the Church Uniting.

4. To communicate to member denominations of the Consultation on Church Union that the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) will reluctantly delay participation in the Church Uniting until such time as ordained lay representation is effectively included in the decision making processes of the Church Uniting.

REPORT OF THE RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE

The Presbytery of Orange wishes to express its gratitude to the White Memorial Church for its hosting the 60th Stated Meeting of the Presbytery . . .
. . .to those who so efficiently helped us find parking places,
. . .to those who welcomed us with refreshments and directed us to where we needed to be,
. . .to the ladies who so graciously served us a delicious lunch, and
. . .to Dr. Pickard for his personal warmth which made us feel so much as home.

From the time that we arrived early in the morning until we left late in the afternoon we found ourselves looked after and cared for so completely that our worship, listening, debate and decision-making were unobstructed. In caring for our creaturely needs, you freed us to approach the work of the Lord for the day. We deeply appreciate your hospitality.

II. Report of the Capital Funds and Mission Development Committee
Chairman Charles Williams presented the following recommendations which were approved:

1. That Undesignated Funds in the Orange-Aid Campaign be allocated proportionately among the following five causes based on a per-centage formula growing out of the original proposed sharing, with High Point Home factored out since it has already reached its goal:

CAUSE	ORIGINAL ASKING	PER-CENTAGE	DOLLARS

Church Development	1,600,000	35.3%	264,397
Camps Renovation	764,000	16.9%	126,581
Conference Center	886,000	19.6%	146,804
After Care NCCCW	75,000	1.7%	13,000
Total Undesignated			$749,000

2. That the funds allocated in Recommendation #1 be reviewed with possible reallocation, as recommended to Orange Presbytery by the Capital Funds and Mission Development Committee no later than October, 1988, for Presbytery's advice and consent.

3. That 100% funding as set forth in the February 25, 1986 action of Orange Presbytery be provided for the Conference Center (reduced goal of $100,000) and After Care NCCCW (reduced goal of $10,000), and that the balance of undesignated funds be divided two-thirds for New Church Development and one-third for Camps.

4. That the Executive Campaign Committee for Orange-Aid be dissolved after introductions of its members and appropriate expressions of appreciation.

5. That the original Capital Funds and Mission Development Committee be continued through October, 1988.

6. Orange Presbytery engaged in a brief worship of dedication of the gifts and pledges of its churches and members, and of gratitude to God for the success of the Orange-Aid Campaign.

PRINCIPLES OF AGREEMENT

(To Guide Boundary and Mission Plans in North Carolina)

PREAMBLE

These Principles of Agreement have been developed under, and are adopted within, the mutual discipline of the ten presbyteries within the State of North Carolina, namely, the Presbyteries of Albemarle, Asheville, Cape Fear, Catawba, Concord, Fayetteville, Mecklenburg, Orange, Wilmington and Yadkin. These Principles are intended to serve as part of a written convenant in two specific ways: as a guide for the negotiation of new presbytery boundaries within the State of North Carolina; and, as a guide for shaping the life, mission and witness of the emerging new presbyteries.

These Principles seek to express the particular concerns of the individual presbyteries, those concerns held in common by all the presbyteries together, and the concerns unique to the black presbyteries in North Carolina.

These Principles also seek to reflect the interests and concerns of the presbyteries in such a way as to be clearly grounded and Scripture, in history, and in the Form of Government of the Presbyterian Church (USA). They seek to be expressive of the integrity of our Church, and to bring that integrity to bear on the matter of boundaries.

PRINCIPLE ONE

We will respect our mutual histories.

The history of Presbyterians in the State of North Carolina is an impressive record. Our lives have been blessed in a wide variety of ways through those years. There have also been parts of that history of which we cannot be proud. Our history has been a mixture of our finite human sinfulness, and of God's empowering work among us. Taken all together, that record has a richness and a diversity which are a profound resource available to us today. One of our most crucial tasks in shaping this part of the reunited Church is to make faithful use of that history. We must preserve and ehance its richness. We need to honor and build upon its integrity. We must continue to learn from its negative aspects. We need to acknowledge and employ the gift of its diversity, indeed to risk celebrating that diversity in the present, for we are one in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Until a specific plan for the reunion of these ten presbyteries is mutually developed, accepted and implemented, each of the constituent governing bodies (and the Catawba Unit) shall remain in its presently constituted form, and shall continue to do its work under all the appropriate provisions of the Consitution of the Presbyterian Church (USA). Each body shall be cognizant of the Articles of Agreement, of "A Guide for Presbyteries Engaging in Boundary Conversations," and of the history of Presbyterianism in North Carolina.

PRINCIPLE TWO

We will be guided by the principle that the boundaries of all presbyteries will be changed.

The Articles of Agreement (7.4) state that "On the principle that a geographically related area makes possible greater fellowship and ease in the conduct of the business or a governing body," it is important that "governing bodies be of sufficient strength and geographical proximity to enhance the total mission of the Church," and that "care must be taken to protect the rights and privileges of members of each of the uniting governing bodies so that they may exercise the responsibilities of leadership in the new governing bodies."

We affirm that all boundary changes must make possible that fellowship, strength and geographical proximity, and must give evidence of pluralism, inclusiveness and diversity within the new boundaries. Our task is to strike an appropriate balance among those considerations, so that the mission of the whole Church is strengthened.

PRINCIPLE THREE

We will be guided by the principle of adopting new names.

Each of the new presbyteries, when constituted, will be responsible for choosing its new name. The nature of an entity is suggested by its name. The name and the entity itself are inseparable. The identity of a people is indicated in their name. The question of names is not to be taken lightly, for the name is expressive of the quest of a people; it can transmit a sense of a people's history and purpose.

The presbyteries in our area carry different names, our parallel histories notwithstanding. For a variety of reasons - theological, psychological, ecclesiological - the creation of new governing bodies calls for new names altogther. It is important in order that the mere fact of minority and majority not become a matter of political power and influence alone, nor a matter of defensively protecting traditions.

PRINCIPLE FOUR

We will provide and maintain support for the small church.

The Presbyterian Church in the State of North Carolina is predominantly a church of small congregations. The gift of the small church is its continuing faithful service to a community of people, offering Christian worship, education and programs of mission outreach - often far beyond its numerical strength. The small church is often the only Presbyterian witness in a given locale or area. Given the small church's significant role in nurturing and training leaders, their rich and varied histories, their lean structures, their dedicated leaders and faithful Ministers of the Word, these churches their dedicated leaders and faithful Ministers of the Word, these churches must continue to be the recipients of regular attention by means of encouragment, financial aid, and the ready availability of presbytery staff and resources.

More effort needs to be given to understanding the needs, struggles and aspirations of the small church. An equitable funding system must be put in place in order to maintain financial support for the small churches, and to strengthen and enhance their unique gifts and witness. This system should foster the small churches' growth toward greater stewardship responsibilities.

PRINCIPLE FIVE

We will honor the principle of inclusiveness.

The presbyteries shall be structured, in accordance with the Book of Order, with sufficient officers, committees and/or division to do mission in orderly and effective ways. These structures shall have membership inclusive of clergyman, clergywomen, laymen, laywomen, black and other ethnic minority persons. In conjunction with the principles of inclusiveness and participation, the council and all standing or permanent committees shall be on rotary system.

PRINCIPLE SIX

We will honor the principle of inclusiveness in employment by presbyteries.

The staffing of presbyteries shall be clearly informed by the Book of Order (G-4.0400 - 4.0403), which addresses the broad concerns of inclusiveness, pluralism and diversity within the Church, including governing body staffing. We affirm the principle of equal opportunity, which would safeguard blacks from any discriminatory outlook or practice which works to exclude blacks, either systematically or unintentionally.

We affirm the principle that employment at the presbytery level, in all categories of skill and responsibility, shall include black/racial ethnic personnel. The new presbyteries shall implement and the principles of inclusiveness and participation in the employment of black person, women, and other minorities in positions of executive leadership, strategy development, office management, secretarial work, program and resource development.

PRINCIPLE SEVEN

We will continue to support our Presbyterian institutions.

Presbyterian educational institutions have long served the church by preparing women and men for leadership. We therefore affirm our intention to support and be advocates, through appropriate governing bodies, for these educational institutions, especially racial/ethnic colleges.

Through the years other institutions have provided a wide range of valuable services, including counseling, child care and homes for the aged. We affirm our continuing support and advocacy for them in appropriate ways.

PRINCIPLE EIGHT

We will seek to adhere to the following timeline for action.

These Principles of Agreement, adopted by the ten North Carolina Presbytery Boundary Committees in December 1985, are recommended for approval by the ten North Carolina presbyteries at their January/February 1986 meetings.

When these Principles of Agreement have been adopted by the ten presbyteries, the ten Presbytery Boundary Committees working together will begin immediately to devise a process by which a boundary and mission plan for new presbyteries will be developed.

It is expected that the final plan will be presented to the Spring 1987 meetings of the presbyteries for approval, with appropriate necessary ation from synods and the General Assembly Special Committee on Boundaries. The final step would then be the writing of overtures to be presented to the General Assembly in 1987, with the effective date for constituting the new presbyteries being January 1, 1989.

A COVENANT FOR THE FORMATION OF NEW PRESBYTERIES OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH (USA)

FROM THE TEN PRESBYTERIES NOW EXISTING IN THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

This Convenant indicates the thoughts of numerous Presbyterians from our region who are in the process of engaging in a pilgrimage toward the formation of new presbyteries.

We endorse the definition of Governing Bodies in Chapter IX of the Book of Order. We also endorse the definition and functional responsibilities of Presbyteries set forth in Chapter XI of the Book of Order.

We reaffirm the Principles of Agreement which have been adopted by the 10 Presbyteries in the State of North Carolina.

This Covenant defines the transitional period during the formation of new presbyteries and provides for the development of a Mission Design, including structure and staff, and those principles and practices which seem to be essential for the evolving new presbyteries.

This transitional period will begin with the establishment of the new presbyteries January 1, 1989 and will last for no more than three years.

We agree that Book of Order, Chapter IV, G-4.0400, must shape the Mission of the new presbyteries:

We consider the following to be essential to the Mission and Ministry of the new presbyteries:

I. All Trustees of the emerging presbyteries and any other officer or officers possessing fiduciary responsibilities shall continue in office and shall be responsible for their trusteeship and corporate responsibilities as applicable until successors in the new presbyteries have been duly and regularly elected or appointed. Concurrently, procedural steps and application for a new corporate charter for the new presbyteries shall be taken.

II. We agree that the small church is a vital part of our life and ministry commanding the special attention of the emerging presbyteries.

The Presbyterian Church in the State of North Carolina is predominantly a church of small congregations. The gift of the small church is its continuing faithful service to a community of people, offering Christian worship, education and programs of mission outreach - often far beyond its numerical strength. The small church is often the only Presbyterian witness in a given locale or area. Given the small church's significant role in nurturing and training leaders, their rich and varied histories, their lean structures, their dedicated leaders and faithful Ministers of the Word, these churches must continue to be the recipients of regular attention by means of encouragement, financial aid, and the ready availability of presbytery staff and resources.

Therefore, new presbyteries shall work with their congregations in developing strategies, and ways and means for the support of small churches which may include:

1. An intentional process of redevelopment.
2. The nurture and support of all of their pastors and congregations.
3. Devising ways and means for the provisions of adequate pastoral leadership for all of its congregation.
4. Developing appropriate procedures for accountability and evaluation.

III. We agree that the region in which the new presbyteries will emerge in North Carolina has a unique opportunity for development of new congregations.

Therefore, the new presbyteries will work with all appropriate Governing Bodies of the Presbyterian Church (USA) in developing strategies and criteria for the location and development of new congregations, with emphasis on racial ethnic churches. Each new presbytery through its Council will:

1. Consult with all appropriate presbytery committees concerning evaluation of need, location, and progress review of new congregations.

1. Mutual trust

2. Understanding and clear definition of roles

3. Cordial working relationships

4. Open communication

To achieve these goals, each new presbytery shall:

1. Consult regularly with its congregations in the allocation of its resources of time, talent, and money in support of mission. (Book of Order, G-11.0103g/G-11.0502c.)

2. Publish at least six (6) times a year a communication which will be distributed to each family in the presbytery.

   Presbyteries may give or receive support from each other according to their own sense of need and mission. We agree that presbyteries may relate to other presbyteries outside of the Synod for purposes of engaging in special programs or mission.

   As emerging presbyteries, we commit ourselves to develop a flexible style which seeks to meet the needs of our congregations and constituency rather than attempting to create a "perfect" presbytery.

VIII. The emerging presbyteries shall be responsible for implementing the commitment of the Presbyterian Church (USA) to inclusiveness; and the participation of its racial ethnic members (Presbyterians of African, Asian, Hispanic descent and Native Americans) in the decision-making processes of the new presbyteries.

IX. We agree that the appropriate method of funding mission of the whole Church begins with OPEN CONSULTATION among the Governing Bodies, i.e., Session/Presbytery/Synod/General Assembly. We further agree that the financial resources necessary for mission in the region encompassing the ten presbyteries in North Carolina can be secured from within the region.

We commit ourselves to developing a consultative process by which each Session has an opportunity to:

1. Participate in the goal setting of presbytery.

2. Consider the needs of Synod and the General Assembly.

3. Make commitments to the mission of the Presbyterian Church (USA).

We recommend this Convenant to each presbytery Council. We recommend that each presbytery Council consider and adopt this Covenant and commend it to its presbytery for adoption.

2. Provide money for new church development through establishing funds within the presbytery budget, and processing applications for funds to other appropriate agencies of the Presbyterian Church (USA).

3. Provide Loan Funds when possible directly to their congregations upon approval by presbytery.

4. Evaluate for approval/disapproval loan/grants to its congregations from other agencies of the Presbyterian Church (USA).

IV. Care shall be taken to assure that all special ministries, institutions, and agencies of the former presbyteries are related to one or more of the new presbyteries.

The present patterns of mission, governance, and financial support of these special ministries, institutions and agencies shall continue for a period of not less than three (3) years following the organizational meeting of the new presbyteries; during which time the new presbytery will initiate conversations with each and every special mission, institution and agency concerning future relationships with regard to mission, governance, and financial support.

Should a vacancy occur in one of these ministries, agencies or institutions during this three-year transition period, the new presbytery shall assess the need for continuing the position prior to filling it.

V. The emerging presbyteries shall determine their ecumenical and interdenominational or cooperative relationships, and ways in which they will participate in Councils of Churches and other regional cooperative bodies; provided that the new presbyteries shall have the same relationship with those bodies, including levels of financial support, as that of the antecedent presbyteries for a period of not less than two (2) years following the organizational meeting of the new presbyteries.

Future relationships with regard to mission, governance, and financial support will be determined by each new presbytery.

VI. As presbyteries we agree that our witness and ministry in public policy and social concerns are important parts of our ongoing mission.

The public policy statements adopted at the direction of each of the presently constituted presbyteries shall have the same effect in eahc of the new presbyteries until rescinded or supplemented by action of the new presbytery.

VII. We agree that our Presbyterian system of governance requires connectional interdependence. We reaffirm our commitment to the principle that administratin of mission should be performed by the Governing Body nearest the congregation that can most effectively and efficiently accomplish it. (Book of Order, G-9.0401.)

We commit ourselves to a good working relationship within each new presbytery and its congregations based on:

NORTH CAROLINA 10 PROPOSED TRANSITION AND STAFFING FOR NEW PRESBYTERIES

For the purpose of creating five new presbyteries from the ten now existing in North Carolina, we hereby agree:

1. That each present presbytery assure all its present staff continuation at their existing level of compensation, benefits and responsibilities or assigned responsibilities for twelve months after the dissolution of the present presbyteries or until another call or employment is commenced, whichever comes first, except limiting contracts.

2. That each emerging presbytery at its first Assembly adopt the following covenant:

   a. That the new presbyteries commit themselves to serious consideration of racial ethnic persons (with emphasis on blacks) and women for executive level staff positions, i.e., Executive Presbyter or Associate Executive Presbyters; and that there be blacks and women employed in such positions at the call of the presbyteries. (G-1.0305; G-6.0106; G-6.0107; G-9.0401/2; G-9.0701.)

   b. That at the time of staff searches by new presbyteries, all current presbytery staff members be eligible to apply for positions in which they served in the antecedent presbytery/s.

   c. That each emerging presbytery commits itself to give persons presently employed by presbyteries consideration for staff positions by:

      (1) Contact regarding all staff positions with such persons inviting them to make application.

      (2) An interview for all who have held a position similar to the one for which they apply.

   d. That the emerging presbytery at its first Assembly elect a staff committee to accomplish the above by January 1, 1989. This committee shall consult with other established committees of the new presbytery in developing a staff rationale and position descriptions.

3. That the first Assembly be held in October, 1987, at which time a steering committee shall be elected to develop a process for establishing:
    a. A mission statement for the new presbytery.
    b. Directions, purposes and priorities for the new presbytery.
    c. An organizational plan for the new presbytery's structure and bylaws.
    d. A budget and corollary funding process for the new presbytery.
4. Each emerging presbytery through its appropriate committees will develop:
    a. Operational decisions related to the establishment of a new presbytery office.
    b. Any other related matters (presbytery name, etc.)
5. That a second Assembly of the new presbytery be held in April, 1988.
6. That funding required in the transition be provided by the presbyteries involved.
7. That each new presbytery consider such other Assemblies as necessary or desirable.
8. That the new presbytery be constituted on January 1, 1989.

The Council of Orange Presbytery
Durham, North Carolina

We have examined the balance sheets of the Current Funds, Endowment and Similar Funds and Property, Plant and Equipment Funds of Orange Presbytery as of December 31, 1986 and 1985, and the related statements of changes in fund balances and Unrestricted Current Funds revenues and expenditures for the years then ended. Our examinations were made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and, accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion the financial statements referred to above present fairly the financial position of the Current Funds, Endowment and Similar Funds and Property, Plant and Equipment Funds of Orange Presbytery as of December 31, 1986 and 1985, and the changes in fund balances and the Unrestricted Current Funds revenues and expenditures for the years then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a consistent basis.

NOTE A--SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Accounting Basis: The financial statements of Orange Presbytery have been prepared on the accrual basis except for depreciation accounting as explained below. The statements of Unrestricted Current Funds revenues and expenditures are statements of financial activities of Current Funds related to the years ended December 31, 1986 and 1985. They do not purport to present the results of operations or the net income for the years then ended.

The Presbytery maintains its books under the principles and practices of fund accounting. This is the procedure by which resources for various purposes are classified for accounting and reporting purposes into funds that are in accordance with activities, objectives, and restrictions specified by donors, sources outside the Presbytery, or by direction of the Board of Trustees or Council.

In accordance with bookkeeping practices recommended by the Presbyterian Church (USA), of which Orange Presbytery is a member, the Presbytery holds open cash receipts and disbursements records for approximately two weeks after the end of the year in order to record year end transactions with member churches and the General Assembly.

Revenues: Benevolence and per capita tax revenues are contributions made by the member churches of Orange Presbytery. Due to the voluntary nature of these contributions, they are recognized as revenues when they are received, except contributions received in advance, which are deferred.

All gains and losses arising from the sale or other disposition of investments and other non-cash assets are accounted for in the fund that owned such assets.

Revenues derived from investments are accounted for in the fund owning such investments, except that revenues derived from investments of Endowment and Similar Funds are accounted for in the fund to which they are restricted or, if unrestricted, in Current Funds.

Restricted gifts, grants, appropriations, and other restricted resources are accounted for in the appropriate restricted funds. Such funds are then reported as revenues and expenditures of the Current Funds when expended.

Property, Plant and Equipment: Amounts expended from Current Funds to acquire property, plant and equipment are accounted for as expenditures of Current Funds. Such expenditures are then recorded as additions to the Property, Plant and Equipment Funds in the statements of changes in fund balances.

In accordance with practices followed by similar organizations, the Presbytery does not provide for the depreciation of fixed assets.

NOTE B--NOTES PAYABLE

Notes payable of the Current Funds consist of the following:

	December 31
	1986	1985
Note payable to bank, for Trinity Church of Burlington, unsecured, payable in quarterly installments of $400, including interest at 5%	$ 2,401	$3,840
Note payable to bank, for St. John's church of Durham, secured by land, payable in monthly installments of $302, including interest at 9.5%	22,196	-0-
Note payable to bank, unsecured, payable in monthly installments of $885, including interest at 11%	-0-	2,595
	$24,597	$6,435

Orange Presbytery has guaranteed, in case of default, notes payable of member churches amounting to $14,389 at December 31, 1986. The note payable for St. John's Church of Durham is in the name of Orange Presbytery, with payments on the note being made by St. John's; a corresponding amount has been included in accounts receivable.

NOTE D--ENDOWMENT AND SIMILAR FUNDS AND RESTRICTED CURRENT FUNDS--Continued

During 1982, Orange Presbytery created the Orange Presbytery Foundation, Inc., a charitable and religious organization established to further the mission of Orange Presbytery. The Presbytery appoints all board members to serve on the Foundation's Board of Trustees. In 1984, Orange Presbytery transferred all of the Endowment Funds, plus the related interest income held in the Current Restricted Funds, to the Orange Presbytery Foundation, Inc. The Foundation is under the direct control of Orange Presbytery, therefore the entities are combined in the accompanying financial statements.

NOTE E--CAPITAL FUNDS

In 1984, Orange Presbytery approved a capital funds campaign to raise $4.5 million in coordination with Presbyterian Homes Inc.; of the $4.5 million, $2.1 was for the Presbytery. The estimated total funds to be received were revised downward in 1986, to $3.3 million in total, with $1.2 million to be the Presbytery's proceeds. The Presbytery's proceeds will be used to finance the development of seven new churches and to make improvements to Camp New Hope, Presbyterian Point and the conference center. A capital fund was established to account for the receipts and disbursements associated with this campaign. This fund is classified as a current restricted fund in the financial statements. The first $175,000 of excess revenues are to pay Orange Presbytery's expenses associated with the campaign; all additional excess revenues will be used for designated purposes.

NOTE F--PROPERTY, PLANT AND EQUIPMENT FUNDS

Property, plant and equipment are stated partially at estimated values due to the fact that either the properties were donated or cost was not available prior to 1974. The estimated values are based on a combination of insurance values, appraisals, and fair market values as established primarily in 1974. Additions to the fund since January 1, 1974 are recorded at cost or fair market value, if donated.

In addition to the properties recorded in this fund, the Trustees of Orange Presbytery hold title in trust to various churches in the Presbytery. This arrangement is for canonical purposes rather than for actual utilization; therefore, the properties are not included in the accompanying financial statements.

NOTE G--LEASES

Orange Presbytery rents its office building from the Synod of North Carolina. The lease on this building expired in 1983 and was renewed in April 1986, retroactive to January 1985, with monthly payments on the building of $725.

NOTE H--RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

During 1982, the Presbytery jointly purchased a house and lot with a member of the Executive Committee of the Presbytery. The Presbytery paid $31,107 and cosigned a mortgage note for $45,000. During 1986, this property was sold, and the proceeds were allocated to the Presbytery and the co-owner based on their original ownership percentages.

We are grateful for the worship service including the Litany of Loretta James and the sermon by George Carpenter. We appreciate him bringing to our awareness the value of our birthright as Christians. To the Presbytery staff and all who participated in the planning and presentation of the docket and to the commissioners to the General Assembly who shared their very real experiences as commissioners. To all the cooks, servers, and hostesses who allowed us to "pig-out" on wholesome and delicious food for our bodies and for the fellowship during our meal. For all who join the Resolutions Committee in these resolves, will you please rise and quickly sit down. Thank you.

4. Approved the following nominees for the Nominating Committee:
   District III - Tim Bird, Burlington
   District IV - Louise Clayton, Hillsborough
   District V - Margaret Terry, Raleigh
   District VI - George Crofoot, Oxford, Barbara Spain, Henderson
5. Approved the following recommendations regarding the new presbytery boundaries:

Recommendations:

1. That each new presbytery shall have a transitional council nominated by the antecedant presbyteries.

2. That the transitional council of each new presbytery shall have equal representation from the antecedent presbyteries which have substantive presence in the new presbytery and one representative from each antecedent presbytery which has only a few churches in the new presbytery.

   Note: This means that in Presbytery B, Yadkin, Concord, and Orange would have equal representation. In Presbytery C, Cape Fear, Albemarle, and Orange would have equal representation; Yadkin, Fayetteville, and Wilmington would have one representative each.

3. That the transitional council shall make recommendations for calling or constituting the first meeting of the new presbytery.

4. That the officers of each transitional council shall be elected by the council.

5. That No. VIII, INCLUSIVENESS, of the Covenant for the Formation of New Presbyteries be amended to add: The new presbyteries shall make provision for the organization and funding of racial ethnic caucuses. The purpose of such caucuses shall include but not be limited to: (1) advising and assisting the new presbytery in determining the priorities for assisting churches and ministers; (2) developing a strategy, in cooperation with the presbyteries, for racial ethnic church development, and (3) advising and assisting in providing persons to serve on the organizational units of the new presbytery.

6. That transitional committees shall report through the transitional council, which shall be the co-ordinating body for the work of committees.

7. That the recommendations of the transitional council and committees shall be acted upon by the Assemblies of the emerging presbytery.

8. That the Planning Committee for the first Assembly of each emerging presbytery consist of an equal number of persons from the presbyteries which are part of the Synod of Piedmont and those from the Synod of North Carolina.

   Note: Although we think equal representation as described in Recommendation No. 2 is also appropriate here, we support this recommendation.

N.C. Collection / UNC-CH Library

9. That in the event we are able to proceed prior to the February meeting of Orange Presbytery, the Council be given authority to appoint members to the Planning Committee for Presbytery B and Presbytery C.

10. That the document, "Transition and Staffing For New Presbyteries", be incorporated in the document, "A Convenant For The Formation of New Presbyteries", and that the latter be otherwise amended so that it reads as follows:

A COVENANT FOR THE FORMATION OF NEW PRESBYTERIES

OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH (U.S.A.)

FROM THE TEN PRESBYTERIES NOW EXISTING IN THE STATE OF

NORTH CAROLINA

This Covenant indicates the agreements of the presbyteries of the Synod of North Carolina; namely, Albemarle, Asheville, Concord, Fayetteville, Mecklenburg, Orange, and Wilmington; and the presbyteries of the Synod of the Piedmont; namely Cape Fear, Catawba, and Yadkin as they engage in the pilgrimage toward the formation of new presbyteries.

We endorse the definition of Governing Bodies in Chapter IX of the Book of Order. We also endorse the definition and functional responsibilities of Presbyteries set forth in Chapter XI of the Book of Order.

We reaffirm the Principles of Agreement which have been adopted by the 10 Presbyteries in the State of North Carolina.

TRANSITION PERIOD

Definition of the Transition Period

The Transition Period shall be the period between approval by the General Assembly of the Overture to organize five new presbyteries in the place of existing presbyteries in North Carolina and December 31, 1988. During this transition period the present presbyteries will exist as presbyteries of Synod D (so-called until a name is selected) the successor synod of North Carolina, Piedmont, and Virginias.

Nature of the Transition Period

The Transition Period shall be that period during which the elements essential to mission and ministry in the new presbyteries shall be formulated which shall include, but not be limited to:

1. A mission statement
2. Direction, purposes, and priorities
3. Organizational plan, i.e., structure and by-laws
4. Budget and corollary funding processes
5. Operational decisions related to the establishment of a new presbytery office.
6. Process for choosing a presbytery name

Transitional Processes

1. The Transition Period in the respective presbyteries shall be implemented by a process which shall include:

    a. The establishment of a transitional council which shall have equal representation from the antecedent presbyteries which have substantive presence in the new presbytery and one representative from each antecedent presbytery which has only a few churches in the new presbytery. Members of this council shall be nominated by the antecedent presbyteries represented in this new presbytery.

    b. The Planning Committees of each of the first Assemblies for the five emerging presbyteries will include on the docket the election of a Committee on Representation.

    c. Establishment of committees and task forces for the purpose of formulating the task set forth in Nature of the Transition Period above. These committees shall be constituted by the same formula for representation as the transitional council, and the members shall be nominated by the antecedent presbyteries.

2. The work of the new presbyteries, which shall not become governing bodies until so constituted as of January 1, 1989 and, thus, cannot function as such, shall be approved by the following process:

    a. Transitional committees shall report through the transitional council, which shall be the co-ordinating body for the work of the committees.

    b. The recommendations of the structural groups shall be acted upon by the Assemblies.

3. Funding required in the transition is to be provided by the presbyteries involved.

Transitional Staffing

1. Each present presbytery shall assure all its present staff continuation at their existing level of compensation, benefits, and responsibilities or assigned responsibilities for twelve months after the dissolution of the present presbyteries or until another call or employment is commenced, whichever comes first-except limiting contracts.

NOTE: The Presbyteries of Cape Fear, Catawba, and Yadkin (in North Carolina) and Southern Virginia Presbytery (in Virginia) function programmatically as a single administrative unit, i.e., the Catawba Inter-Presbytery Program Agency. Under this design the Staff of the Catawba Inter-Presbytery Program Agency functions as the staff of each of these Presbyteries. Therefore, "present staff", as used in this section means the staff of the Catawba Inter-Presbytery Program Agency.

2. The new presbyteries commit themselves to serious consideration of racial ethnic persons (with emphasis on blacks) and women for executive level staff positions, i.e. Executive Presbyter or Associate Executive Presbyters; and that there be blacks and women employed in such positions at the call of the presbyteries. (G-1.0305; G-6.0106; G-6.0107; G-9.0401/2; G-9.0701)

3. At the time of staff searches by new presbyteries, all current presbytery staff members be eligible to apply for positions in which they served in the antecedent presbytery/s.

4. Each emerging presbytery commits itself to give persons presently employed by presbyteries consideration for staff positions by:

   a. Contact regarding all staff positions with such persons, inviting them to make application.

   b. An interview for all who have held a position similar to the one for which they apply.

5. At its first Assembly, the emerging presbytery shall elect a staff committee to accomplish the above of January 1, 1989. This committee shall consult with other established committees of the new presbytery in developing a staff rationale and position descriptions.

Council was given permission to negotiate further on behalf of Presbytery to bring back to the Presbytery any further documentation regarding the new presbytery boundaries.

The report of the Council was adopted as a whole.

REPORT OF THE BILLS AND OVERTURES COMMITTEE

The report of the Bills and Overtures Committee was reported as follows:
The following Resolution was adopted as amended:

RESOLUTIONS

In the light of the "New Eyes" Report at the last Presbytery meeting and encouraged by the Central American Aris Plan, we the members of Orange Presbytery do hereby resolve

That the Stated Clerk communicate to the NC Congressional Delegation our support for the Central American Peace Process and our opposition to any further aid to the contras as a fighting force.

Futhermore, we strongly encouraged Sessions to study the "New Eyes" Report and the General Assembly Position Paper on Central America.

Resolution on the INF Treaty was adopted as follows:

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) is committed to seeking a just, secure peace in response to God's peacegiving activity in the world;

WHEREAS President Reagan and General Secretary Gorbachev signed the Intermediate Nuclear Forces (INF) Treaty on December 8, 1987;

WHEREAS, the INF Treaty reduces the number of nuclear weapons that exist in the world and has created a verification process for assuring that the terms of the Treaty are carried out;

WHEREAS the United States and the Soviet Union are currently negotiating other steps which would further reduce the risk posed by nuclear weapons;

THEREFORE, the Presbytery of Orange supports the ratification of the Intermediate Nuclear Forces (INF) Treaty without amendment to the terms agreed upon by President Reagan and General Secretary Gorbachev, and directs the Stated Clerk to send notice of this action to Senator Helms and Senator Sanford.

The following Overture to the 1988 General Assembly was adopted: (This is to be sent to the General Assembly.)

Bills and Overtures Committee:
Lee Adkins, Chairman
Wilson Gunn
Rebecca Whitenack

AN OVERTURE TO THE 1988 GENERAL ASSEMBLY

* * * * *

Whereas the two merging Presbyterian Churches, in the Articless of Agreement, "Article II, Pension, annuity, Insurance, Benefit, Assistance and Relief Programs," instructed the Board of Annuities and Relief and the Board of Pensions, together, as a required part of the merger process, to prepare for the new General Assembly's approval before becoming effective:

"a. new unified plans and programs to replace the present pension and benefit plans and the assistance and relief programs of the (two churches). (11.22)

"b. a program for the equitable application of the present Annuity, Relief an insurance Funds of the Board of annuities and Relief and thepresent Pension, Endowment, Assistance, Homes and Equipment an Specific Trust Funds of the Board of Penions that assures adhere to the purposes for which such funds were set aside. (11.2b)

Whereas the new unified plans and programs were to be approved by the General Assembly. (11.3)

Whereas the Boards also reported to the 1986 General Assembly that they had "authorized an in-depth study of the Homes Program in order to guide the two Boards or the new Board of Pensions in making decisions for the future," and that, "Pending the outcome of the study, the Homes Program shall be continued in its present general form and without major expansion," (42.083-4, p. 705)

Whereas the report to the General Assembly (by the merged Board of Pensions in 1987) still listed as one of its Assigned Responsibilities the following: "To establish and operate retirement housing for eligible retirees and their spouses;" (44.001, (3), p. 669).

Whereas in the Minutes of the 199th General Assembly (1987), 41.357, p. 632, we find that the Board of Pensions is directed "to conduct a study . . . of the needs of retired ministers, their spouses and their survivors and to assess how effectively these needs are being met by the church and other agencies, and to report to the 203rd General Assembly (1991) its findings and recommendations."

Whereas the Board of Pensions of October 29, 1987, without prior announcement; without sharing the study results and calling on Presbyterians to join in a major review of retiree housing; and without General Assembly a pproval, sent out a letter of that date to all the residents in the Presbyterian Homes Program notifying them that an amended Homes Program which the Board had adopted a few days earlier "will involve the gradual sale of existing Board Homes except Westminister Gardens."

Resolved that the Presbytery of Orange overture the 200th General Assembly to direct the Board of Pensions to comply with #11 of the Articles of Agreement with respect to a "new Unified Homes Program" and the directives of the 199th General Assembly to "conduct a study of the needs of retired ministers, their spouses and their survivors . . . and to report to the 203rd General Assembly (1991) its findings and recommendations" and suspend its October 24th, 1987 action until reporting is made to the General Assembly and its decision rendered.

REPORT OF THE RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE

Respectfully submitted,
The Resolutions Committee:
Martha Stevenson, Chairman
John Barney
Norman Whitney

Candidates were questioned concerning their ideas and concerns for the future of the church. Also described was the process of preparation for this examination, including the areas of church history, theology, worship, government and mission.

Don Lannon then moved that the examination of the four elders-elect be sustained and that the commission proceed to their ordination and installation. Frank Dew proceeded to describe the order for the service itself.

The commission was then recessed to the worship service, at which it will reconvene, perform its task of ordination and installation and afterwards approve its minutes and adjourn.

Having accomplished the task for which it was created, the commission requested of the Presbytery that it be dissolved.

REPORT OF THE COUNCIL

The Report of the Council was presented by N.N. Fleming, III, Chairman, as follows:

Since the last meeting of Orange Presbytery the Council has met two times: March 8 and April 5. The Council submitted the following recommendations for the approval of the Presbytery:

1. That $25,000 of the 12/31/87 Fund Balance for the Ghana Presbyterian Church partnership to be used in the Afram Plains be used to renovate staff quarters in Donkokrum for the Kusterbecks and to purchase a vehicle to be used by the Presbyterian Church in Ghana for use by the Kusterbecks in implementing the public health, nutrition, and agricultural ministry in the Afram Plains.

2. Whereas, the Ghana Presbyterian Church partnership was not sufficiently developed to require all the funds allocated in 1987, and

   Whereas, inflation and needs of the people have created urgent needs for immediate assistance for the C.C.S. agricultural program in Mbujimayi, Therefore, be it resolved that the Presbytery approve the re-allocation of $19,900 from the 12/31/87 Fund Balance for the Ghana partnership to be used to purchase equipment and supplies for the agricultural program of C.C.S.

3. Approved that the title for the mobile unit used as education space at the St. John's Church, Durham, be transferred from Presbytery to St. John's Church.

4. Approved that $10,000 from the Fund Balance of the Stone Estate be granted to North Raleigh Church towards its building of a first unit building.

BRIEF HISTORIES OF THE LIVES AND MINISTRIES OF

ADDISON DUNLAP ELLISON

Addison Dunlap Ellison, Jr. (A.D.") was born June 25, 1921 in Charleston, West Virginia. A native of Greenville, West Virginia, he attended schools in Monroe County and Morgantown, West Virignia. He transferred from West Virginia University and graduated from Hampden-Sydney College, 1943 Magna Cum Laude. He was awarded the D.D. (M.Div.) degree from Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary July 1945. The degree was conferred in the presence of Dr. George A. Buttrick. In 1981 he was granted the D.Min. degree from McCormick Seminary.

We were greeted graciously by the church's members.

We were led in worship and reminded that it does matter that we are the salt and light of the world.

We were informed of the ministries within Orange Presbytery.

We acknowledged our retiring ministers and received our new ministers.

We were bountifully fed at the Lord's Table and the tables of the First Church, Burlington.

Therefore, be it resolved that we, the Presbytery or Orange, express our special thanks to the staff, the Session, the Women of the Church, and the members of First Presbyterian Church, Burlington, for thier work in hosting us today and that we ask God's blessing as they continue their ministry in this area in the new Presbytery.

REPORT OF THE COUNCIL

Since the last meeting of Orange Presbytery the Council has met three times: May 3, June 7 and July 5. The Council submitted the following recommendations for the approval of the Presbytery:

1. That Presbytery release monies (approximately $52,000) designated for an adult conference center to the use of the Property and Long Range Planning Committee of the Outdoor Ministries Work Unit for the purpose of remodeling existing structures designated Walnut and Oak to house 24 adults in semi-private rooms. Rooms will be heated, air conditioned and carpeted. The bathroom module will be large enough to serve additional adults when funds are available to construct a meeting room between the two cottages. Current meeting space is available in the dining room. Work to be completed in 1988.

2. Approved the Outdoor Ministries' Mission Design Statement:

   Outdoor ministries exist to serve Jesus Christ. This ministry is an integral expression of a Presbytery's mission and an extension of the local church in an outdoor setting away from many demands of the home environment. This is accomplished using the unique natural settings of our camps and conference centers. Providing an environment of a caring, loving Christian community aiding children, youth and adults to grow in their relationship with God, selves and neighbors, and by creating an experience laboratory of learning how to live as God's people.

3. Approved that Jamestown Presbyterian Church be authorized to encumber its property $300,000 for a construction loan and $250,000 for a permanent loan for building an educational building.

4. Approved following recommendation from the Peacemaking Committee:

   That Orange Presbytery go on record as affirming the Summit as an important symbol for continued dialogue between the super powers. We applaud the efforts of President Reagan and General Secretary Gorbachev as they lead our countries in the way of peace and better understanding.

5. Approved the 1987 Audit as prepared by the firm of Ernst and Whinney.

The Council of Orange Presbytery
Durham, North Carolina

We have examined the balance sheets of the Current Funds, Endowment and Similar Funds, and Property, Plant and Equipment Funds of Orange Presbytery as of December 31, 1987 and 1986, and the related statements of changes in fund balances and Unrestricted Current Funds revenues and expenditures for the years then ended. Our examinations were made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and, accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly the financial position of the Current Funds, Endowment and Similar Funds, and Property, Plant and Equipment Funds of Orange Presbytery as of December 31, 1987 and 1986, and the changes in fund balances and the Unrestricted Current Funds revenues and expenditures for the years then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a consistent basis.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

ORANGE PRESBYTERY

NOTE A—SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Accounting Basis: The financial statements of Orange Presbytery have been prepared on the accrual basis except for depreciation accounting as explained below. The statements of Unrestricted Current Funds revenues and expenditures are statements of financial activities of Current Funds related to the years ended December 31, 1987 and 1986. They do not purport to present results of operations or net income for the years then ended.

The Presbytery maintains its books under the principles and practices of fund accounting. This is the procedure by which resources for various purposes are classified for accounting and reporting purposes into funds that are in accordance with activities, objectives, and restrictions specified by donors, sources outside the Presbytery, or by direction of the Board of Trustees or Council.

In accordance with bookkeeping practices recommended by the Presbyterian Church (USA), of which Orange Presbytery is a member, the Presbytery holds open cash receipts and disbursements records for approximately two weeks after the end of the year in order to record year-end transactions with member churches and the General Assembly.

Revenues: Benevolence and per capita tax revenues are contributions made by the member churches of Orange Presbytery. Due to the voluntary nature of these contributions, they are recognized as revenues when they are received, except contributions received in advance, which are deferred.

All gains and losses arising from the sale or other disposition of investments and other non-cash assets are accounted for in the fund that owned such assets.

Revenues derived from investments are accounted for in the fund owning such investments, except that revenues derived from investments of Endowment and Similar Funds are accounted for in the fund to which they are restricted or, if unrestricted, in Current Funds.

Restricted gifts, grants, appropriations, and other restricted resources are accounted for in the appropriate restricted funds. Such funds are then reported as revenues and expenditures of the Current Funds when expended.

Property, Plant and Equipment: Amounts expended from Current Funds to acquire property, plant and equipment are accounted for as expenditures of Current Funds. Such expenditures are then recorded as additions to the Property, Plant and Equipment Funds in the statements of changes in fund balances.

In accordance with practices followed by similar organizations, the Presbytery does not provide for the depreciation of fixed assets.

NOTE D--ENDOWMENT AND SIMILAR FUNDS AND RESTRICTED CURRENT FUNDS--Continued

During 1982, Orange Presbytery created the Orange Presbytery Foundation, Inc., a charitable and religious organization established to further the mission of Orange Presbytery. The Presbytery appoints all Board members to serve on the Foundation's Board of Trustees. In 1984, Orange Presbytery transferred all of the Endowment Funds, plus the related interest income held in the Current Restricted Funds, to the Orange Presbytery Foundation, Inc. The Foundation is under the direct control of Orange Presbytery; therefore, the entities are combined in the accompanying financial statements.

NOTE E--CAPITAL FUND

In 1984, Orange Presbytery approved a capital fund campaign to raise $4.5 million in coordination with Presbyterian Homes Inc. Of the $4.5 million, $2.1 was for the Presbytery. The estimated total funds to be received were revised downward in 1986 to $3.3 million in total, with $1.2 million to be the Presbytery's proceeds. The Presbytery's proceeds will be used to finance the development of seven new churches and to make improvements to Camp New Hope and Presbyterian Point. A capital fund was established to account for the receipts and disbursements associated with this campaign. This fund is classified as a Current Restricted Fund in the financial statements. The first $175,000 of excess revenues is to pay Orange Presbytery's expenses with the campaign, of which approximately $115,000 has already been spent. All additional excess revenues will be used for designated purposes.

NOTE F--PROPERTY, PLANT AND EQUIPMENT FUND

Property, plant and equipment are stated partially at estimated values due to the fact that either the properties were donated or cost was not available prior to 1974. The estimated values are based on a combination of insurance values, appraisals, and fair market values as established primarily in 1974. Additions to the fund since January 1, 1974 are recorded at cost or fair market value, if donated.

In addition to the properties recorded in the fund, the Trustees of Orange Presbytery hold title in trust to various churches in the Presbytery. This arrangement is for canonical purposes rather than for actual utilization; therefore, the properties are not included in the accompanying financial statements.

NOTE G--LEASES

Orange Presbytery rents its office building from the Synod of North Carolina. The lease on this building extends through December 1992 with monthly payments of $725.

NOTE H--RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

During 1982, the Presbytery jointly purchased a house and lot with a member of the Executive Committee of the Presbytery. The Presbytery paid $31,107 and cosigned a mortgage note for $45,000. During 1986, this property was sold, and the proceeds were allocated to the Presbytery and the co-owner based on their original ownership percentages.

NOTE I--DISSOLUTION OF THE PRESBYTERY

Effective December 31, 1988, the boundaries of the 10 existing Presbyteries in North Carolina will be realigned to form 5 new Presbyteries. Therefore, as of that date, Orange Presbytery will cease to exist, and the geographical area currently within Orange Presbytery's jurisdiction will be divided between two currently unnamed Presbyteries. Once the plan of realignment is finalized, the existing assets and fund balances of Orange Presbytery will be split and allocated to the two unnamed Presbyteries.

Naomi Allen met with Fran Moore (the wife of Bert) as a guesture of pastoral care and support.

The information gathered through the above meeting, and interviews was shared and discussed. The possible conclusions which could be drawn as a result of this process were given consideration.

It was decided that some time to further reflect on these issues would be helpful and that the commission would meet again on January 6 at 2:00 pm at Westminster Church in Durham to consider the most appropriate "next steps." It was decided that Dr. Alfred Thomas would be invited to that meeting.

The meeting was closed with prayer led by Naomi Allen at 7:45 pm.

Orange Presbytery's Administrative Commission for the Westminster Presbyterian Church of Raleigh met on January 6 at 2:00 pm at Westminster Church in Durham.

Members of the commission present were: Roger Jackle (chair), Naomi Allen, Gene Brannon, John Bush, Haywood Holderness, Harriet Isbell, and Dallas Whitford. A quorum was present. Alfred Thomas and James Watkins (Presbytery staff members) were invited to and were present at the meeting.

Dr. Jackle opened the meeting with prayer.

Minutes of the December 21 meeting were read and approved.

There was a general discussion regarding the various options before the commission in response to the situation faced by the leaders and members of Westminster Church in Raleigh.

The commission concluded that the best way to promote the peace and unity of Westminister Church was for the church to experience a new beginning. To that end, a meeting of the Session of Westminster will be called on January 14 at 7:00 pm to share with that body the commission's findings. Prior to that time, the views of the commission will be shared privately with Bert Moore and with Shirley McNeill.

The meeting was closed with prayer led by Gene Brannon at 6:10 pm.

Orange Presbytery's Administrative Commission for the Westminster Presbyterian Church of Raleigh met on January 14 at 7:00 pm at Wesminster Church in Raleigh.

Members of the commission present were: Roger Jackle (chair), Naomi Allen, Gene Brannon, John Bush, Haywood Holderness, Harriet Isbell, and Dallas Whitford. A quorum was present. The session of Westminster church (all 12 elders and Bert Moore) and Shirley NcNeill (the DEC of the church) were invited to and were present at the meeting.

With the consent of Bert Moore, the Session elected Dr. Jackle as its moderator for this meeting.

Mike Stegal, a member of the Session, opened the meeting with scripture readings and prayer.

The purpose of the meetings was for the Commission to share with the Session its findings and conclusions: namely that a new beginning must be experienced in the life of Westminster and that this would begin with the replaement of the present staff (pastor and educator). Dr. Jackle presented the decisions in this regard to the Session. Further, Dr. Jackle reported that members of the Commission had previously shared these findings with Bert and Shirley and asked each to consider resigning. Bert chose not to respond as requested prior to this meeting. Dr. Jackle asked Bert if he would now respond and he remained noncommital. Shirley did respond positively to the Commission's request and Dr. Jackle indicated that she was prepared to offer her resignation.

Following the Commission's report, there was an opportunity for response. Questions were raised seeking clarification and views were offered promoting alternatives to the Commission's conclusions (most of which suggested a probationary period for the present staff of the church ... an alternative given considerable energy and thought by the commission before choosing the present course). The discussion was extensive.

The Commission restated its decision that the relationships of the present staff (pastor and DCE) would be dissolved (either by resignation or by the Commission taking steps toward dissolving the relationship through the powers of Orange Presbytery). It was decided in response to input from session members that this dissolution should not occur until January 31 in order to allow some time for closure.

Following this, Shirley McNeill was given the floor to speak to the issues being considered and to offer a statement regarding her resignation. She supported the findings and conclusions of the Commission and offered through her resignation a powerful glimpse of one who loved her church and sought opportunities for healing and peace to occur within that body even through considerable personal sacrifice

There was a brief time of response.

Bert Moore spoke of his love for the church, his call and his commitment to the congregation at Westminster. Bert offered his resignation and chose to leave the meeting.

The session acted to call a congregational meeting on January 31 for the purpose of concurring with Bert's request that the pastoral relationship be dissolved. The session accepted with regret the resignation of Shirley, effective January 31. The session acted to continue financial support of Shirley in the amount equaling 50% of her current salary package (with the understanding that Orange Presbytery would pay 50%) for a period of six months.

The session agreed to be responsible for communicating what has transpired with the congregation of Westminster (particularly on Sunday morning the 17th) working with and offering support to Bert and Shirley as much as possible.

The Session agreed to meet on the evening of the 17th to continue the work that lies ahead. Harriet Isbell from the Commission has agreed to be present and serve as moderator if necessary. The Commission will meet on the 18th to continue its work.

The meeting was closed with a prayer led in turn by each person present at 11:45 pm.

Orange Presbytery's Administrative Commission for the Westminster Presbyterian Church of Raleigh met on January 18 at 1:30 pm at the Kirk of Kildaire Church in Cary.

Members of the commission present were: Roger Jackle (chair), Naomi Allen, Gene Brannon, John Bush, Haywood Holderness, Harriet Isbbell, and Dallas Whitford. A quorum was present.

Dr. Jackle opened the meeting with prayer.

Minutes of the January 6 meeting and the January 14 meeting were read and approved.

There was a time of discussion regarding the meeting of the 14th (held with the session of Westminster). General responses and feelings were shared.

Reports regarding the worship service held at Westminster Church on the 17th and the session meeting held that night were shared.

The commission identified and dealt with the following issues:

-how to follow up with Bert Moore.

-contacting Al Thomas regarding personal and career development support for Bert Moore and Shirley McNeill.

-possible individuals who might serve effectively as supply ministers and as interims for Westminster.

-how to follow up with the officers and congregation of Westminster in a way which offered clarification of the commission's recent decisions and also an opportunity for the feelings and concerns of the officers and congregation to be heard. (In this regard it was decided that the commission would make itself available to the officers and congregation on January 24 at 2:00 pm at Westminster Church.)

The next meeting of the commission will be held on February 16 at 2:00 pm at the Kirk of Kildaire in Cary.

The meeting was closed with prayer led by Dallas Whitford at 4:30 pm.

Orange Presbytery's Administrative Commission for the Westminister Presbyterian Church in Raleigh met on February 9 at 3:00 pm at the Kirk of Kildaire Church in Cary.

Members of the commission present were: Roger Jackle (chair), Naomi Allen, Johh Bush, Harriet Isbell, and Dallas Whitford. A quorum was present at the meeting.

Dr. Jackle opened the meeting with prayer.

Minutes of the January 18 meeting were read and approved.

It is here noted that members of the commission met the Bert Moore on January 23, and the entire commission met with officers and members of Westminster on January 24. The purpose of each of these meetings was to share the findings and decisions of the commission, to answer any questions, and to listen to their responses.

There was a time of general discussion of the meetings mentioned above, with response and feelings shared.

Dr. Thomas was asked to share any communications received through his office regarding issues the commission faces, and to clarify options before the commission at the present time. He did so.

There was a discussion regarding the next step the commission should take. A motion was made, seconded and approved that:

> The commission request that Stated Clerk of Orange Presbytery to set aside time on the docket of the meeting of Orange Presbytery on February 23 for the commission to make a report. At this time the commission would request that its authority be expanded to include the possibility of: a) dissolving the pastoral relationship between Bert Moore and Westminster Presbyterian church of Raleigh, and b) setting aside the Session of Westminster Presbyterian Church in Raleigh.

Naomi Allen, John Bush and Dallas Whitford were asked to meet with the officers of Westminster for their stated meetings which are to occur in February. The commission will suggest a joint meeting of the Session and Diaconate to encourage open communication and the greatest degree of understanding among the officers of the church. John Bush will make contact with the Clerk of Session to facilitate this process.

Harriet Isbell will work with the worship committee to help secure worship leadership for Westminster in the coming weeks.

The commission's meeting of February 16 was postponed until the 23rd (to be held at the Westminster Church in Durham).

The meeting was closed with prayer led by Dr. Jackle at 4:45 pm.

Orange Presbytery's Administrative Commission for the Westminster Presbyterian Church of Raleigh met on February 23 at 9:30 am at Westminster Presbyterian Church in Durham.

Members of the commission present: Roger Jackle (chair), Naomi Allen, Gene Brannon, John Bush, Haywood Holderness, and Harriet Isbell, A quorum was present.

Naomi Allen opened the meeting with prayer.

It is here noted that members of the commission met with members of Westminster on February 19. The intent of the church members was to ask the commission to grant a "trial period" for pastor and congregation to work things out, and that after a reasonable time if peace and unity was not restored to the church that they would support a change in pastoral leadership. Also members of the commission met with the officers of Westminster Church on February 21. This was a meeting of the Session, followed by a joint meeting with the Diaconate. In these meetings the officers shared their views about the present and future of Westminster, and their roles in what would occur.

Members of the commission shared information gathered at these meetings and there was a time of discussion.

There was a motion made, seconded, and passed to reaffirm the decision made at the commission's meeting of February 19 that in its report to Presbytery the commission would seek expanded s authority.

There was a motion made, seconded, and passed to adopt the following statement and include the essence of what is stated in the commission's report to Presbytery.

> "The commission hereby reaffirms the findings set forth in the January 6th statement adopted by the commission and recorded in the minutes. Westminster Church in Raleigh is in the midst of a crisis and there has been and continues to be significant pain experienced by all. In order to deal with this pain and the divisions that exist, a new beginning is necessary for the church as a whole, and the staff in particular. The commission is grateful to Shirley McNeill for her openness to the conclusions reached and her decision to resign, and the commission stands behind the commitments made to support Shirley in the coming months.
> In regards to Bert Moore, the commission has come to recognize that this is not the time to take action to dissolve his pastoral relationship with Westminster. This is due to the fact that neither Bert nor the majority of the members of the congregation are able to let go of that relationship. To force such a separation at this time would be destructive therefore to individual lives and relationships as well as the church as a whole.

In the coming months, the commission proposes the following:
- that Bert Moore continue to serve as the pastor of Westminster.
- that a consultant work with the church on behalf of the commission to offer administrative support to Bert and the officers of the church, and a pastoral presence fostering healing, and where possible, reconciliation.
- that Bert be engaged in counseling with a practitioner approved by the commission for the purpose of providing support and guidance to Bert during this difficult time.

It is the hope and prayer of the commission that in such a way, the coming months will provide the opportunity for new beginnings to be made in the lives of individuals and the church. The commission's intent is to provide the time and space for this to occur in ways that are constructive and honorable, and provide the foundation for a future of hope (both for the individuals involved and for the congregation)."

The meeting was closed with prayer by Dr. Jackle at 12:15 pm.

Orange Presbytery's Administrative Commission for the Westminster Presbyterian Church of Raleigh met on April 11 at 2:00 pm at Westminster Presbyterin Church in Durham.

Members of the commission present were: Roger Jackle (chair), Naomi Allen, Gene Brannon, John Bush, Haywood Holderness, Harriet Isbell, and Dallas Whitford. A quorum was present. Dr. Alfred Thomas (Executive Presbyter of Orange Presbytery) was also present at the invitation of the commission.

Dr. Jackle opened the meeting with prayer.

Minutes of the February 9 and February 23 meetings were read and approved.

Dr. Thomas presented the commission two letters written to his attention from the Session of Westminster Church dated March 23 and March 25. The letters were discussed as to the concerns held by the Session and the responsibilities of the commission. In response to the letter dated March 25 the commission took under consideration:

1. a request that the commission submit an interim report of its findings at the next stated meeting of Orange Presbytery.
2. a request that the commission evaluate its procedures and findings to date.

3. a request that Dr. Thomas and appropriate members of Orange Presbytery meet with the Session of Westminster to hear their concerns.

No decision was reached in regards to item #1.

In regards to item #2, reports were heard from commission members evaluating the life of the church at Westminster over the last two months. Members of the commission were assigned various functions including attendance at worship, at meetings of the Session and Diaconate, and conferences with the minister. In response to these reports and discussion of them, by consensus it was decided that the decisions of the commission made on February 23 are reaffirmed and remain in place.

In regards to #3, the decision was made to invite the Session of Westminister to the next meeting of the commission to provide a forum for their concerns to be heard and for the commission to respond. This meeting will be held at the office of Orange Presbytery on May 1, at 4:00 pm. Dr. Thomas has been asked to be present.

In anticipation of the congregation of Westminster Church electing a nominating committee (and in light of the sensitive nature of the work of that committee in view of the recent divisions in the congregation), the commission will send a letter to the members of the congregation addressing the nominating process as outlined in the Book of Order with particular emphasis on the representative nature mandated in the process. Further it was agreed that Dr. Jackle will meet with the nominating committee as it convenes and begins it work.

The meeting was closed with prayer by Harriet Isbell at 4:20 pm.

Orange Presbytery's Administrative Commission for the Westminster Presbyterian Church of Raleigh met on June 21 at 2:00 pm at the Kirk of Kildaire in Cary.

Members of the commission present were: Roger Jackle (chair), Naomi Allen, Gene Brannon, John Bush, Haywood Holderness, Harriet Isbell, and Dallas Whitford. A quorum was present.

Dr. Jackle opened with prayer.

Reports from members of the commission regarding contacts with the minister, session, diaconate, staff, and members of Westminster were heard were heard and a general discussion followed.

The possibilities of contact with and support for Shirley McNeill was discussed. Roger will contact the Presbytery's office as to ongoing support for Shirley and Harriet will make direct contact with Shirley.

It was brought to the commission's attention that a number of members of Westminster who feel alienated from the church at this time are meeting for fellowship and mutual support. Commission members expressed concern for the pastoral needs of these individuals and families, and support for efforts other churches in Raleigh might make in reaching out to these people.

The commission discussed and decided that a status report would be made at the July 26 meeting or Orange Presbytery and that a copy of the report would be sent to the Session of Westminster.

Arrangements were made for the commission to be represented at the meetings of the Session (and where possible the Diaconate) in the coming months.

The next meeting of the commission will be at 12:30 pm on Tuesday, August 23 at Westminster Church in Durham.

The meeting was closed with prayer led by Gene Brannon at 4:15 pm.

Orange Presbytery's Administrative Commission for the Presbyterian Church of Raleigh met on May 1, 1988 at Presbytery's Office in Durham. Present were Dallas Whitford, Naomi Allen, Gene Brannon, Haywood Holderness and Harriet Isbell, acting moderator. Roger Jackle and John Bush were excused. Also present were Al Thomas, presbytery executive, Bert Moore, and the session of Westminster Church, Raleigh: Barbara Cain, Jim Lambeth, Mike Stegall, and Landis Mitchell. Haywood was asked to serve as clerk.

The purpose of the meeting was to respond to the letter of March 25, 1988 to Dr. Thomas.

Each of the Session members expressed their concerns. Commission members responded informally.

The meeting adjourned at 6:00 pm with prayer by Elder Jim Lambeth.

Haywood Holderness, Jr.
Acting Clerk

Orange Presbytery's Administrative Commission for the Westminster Presbyterian Church of Raleigh met on August 23 at 1:15 pm at Westminster Church in Durham.

Members of the commission present were: Roger Jackle (chair), Naomi Allen, Gene Brannon, John Bush, Haywood Holderness, Harriet Isbell, and Dallas Whitford. A quorum was present:

Roger Jackle opened the meeting with prayer.

Reports from members of the commission regarding contacts made with the minister, session, and diaconate of Westminster were made as follows:

- Naomi Allen and Harriet Isbell reported on meetings of the Diaconate they attended over the summer.
- Dallas Whitford and Roger Jackle reported on meetings of the Session they had recently attended.
- Roger Jackle reported on conversations he had with Bert Moore.

Further, Gene Brannon reported on a recent conversation she had with Shirley NcNeill. (Roger Jackle will follow-up on the commission's continuing concern for Shirley by inquiring into the support Presbytery's staff is offering her.)

In regards to those members of Westminster who feel alienated from the church at this time (see Minutes of June 21), Harriet Isbell reported that the Session of West Raleigh Presbyterian Church had made attempts to provide a pastoral presence to those individuals during this difficult time in their lives.

By common consent the commission decided to continue to be available to the leadership of Westminster, but that representatives of the commission would no longer regularly be present at the meetings and functions of Westminster. The intent of this decision is to give the leaders of the church the space they need to test their abilities to resonsibly carry out their ministry.

Following general discussion, regarding the above reports as well as other information previously gathered, the commission summarized its findings to date in the following ways:

- Most members of Westminster are supportive of Bert Moore and desire to see him remain as their pastor.
- The Session, Diaconate, and the committee structure of those bodies are, with a few exceptions, functioning and making progress in their efforts to deal with the needs of the church and her ministry.
- The commission believes that it has accomplished most of what it is able in response to its mandate to "inquire into the disorder (at Westminster) and settle the difficulties in order that peace and unity may prevail."
- One principal area of concern remains for the commission, and that is the carrying out of the original proposals of the commission. (See minutes of February 23, 1988.)

A motion was made, seconded and passed that if the commission finds that Bert Moore has followed the commission's original proposals, then the commission will request that it be dissolved by Orange Presbytery at its stated meeting on October 25 at Hawfields Presbyterian Church. At that time, the commission would seek time on the docket for Dr. Jackle to make a brief report to the Presbytery.

A motion was made, seconded and passed that if the commission finds that Bert Moore has not followed the commission's proposals of Feb. 23, 1988, then the commission will request Orange Presbytery at its stated meeting on October 25 at Hawfields Presbyterian Church that the commission be transferred to Presbytery C in order to continue its work.

The chairman requested that if matters requiring the commission's attention come to light (for any member of the commission), tha they be brought to Roger's attention by October 17.

The meeting was closed with prayer by Harriet Isbell at 3:30 pm.

DEAN ADAMS BAILEY
1924-1988

Dean Adams Bailey was born in Memphis, Tennessee, on July 13, 1924. He was educated at Southwestern at Memphis and Louisville Theological Seminary. He was married to Adrienne Irene Thompson on August 1, 1953, and they were the parents of four children.

Dean served chruches in West Virginia, Tennessee and South Carolina before coming to First Presbyterian Church, Asheboro in 1980, as Associate Pastor. Here he was serving at the time of his death.

Dean loved nature. He saw beauty in all God's creations, and it is comforting to know his last moments were spent in the enjoyment of things natural. Trees. Streams. Mountains. The works of an unseen hand that all too many of us take for granted. The last thoughts he shared from the pulpit were expressions of this love, as he implored others to find comfort and solace in thee simple beauties, in the knowledge that our Creator put them here for his children to enjoy.

28 years. He was actively involved in the negotiationss for church union which culminated in the uniting of six churches in November 1970 into the Church of India.

After a reorganization of the United Presbyterian Church mission agencies in the early 1970's, Mr. Ruff served as the Presbyterian Church's Representative in Indian and Nepal, acting as liason person and facilitator in mission in relation to Christian work in India and Nepal. He served for four years as the Executive Secretary of the United Mission to Nepal.
